1. A copy of Government Order No. ~~5111-12~~ 1416-17/ C.B. ~~123-46-1~~ ~~142-39-1~~ dated ~~11th May 1940~~ 23rd Sept. 1946 containing rules regarding invitations by cards for the Birthday and Dasara Celebrations in Mysore, is put up. According to Rule 1, all officers in service as well as retired Officers of the Special Class in the Durbar Order of precedence who are residing in the Mysore State will be invited for the Birthday Functions.

2. The Office of the President, Representative Assembly came into being at the last Session of the Representative Assembly and there are no orders yet regarding the rank and status of the President, Representative Assembly. If this is the same as that of the President, Legislative Council and the President, Constituent Assembly, he will have to be given a rank in the Special Class in the Durbar Order of Precedence and if this is done, he would be eligible for invitation for the Birthday functions. This is for consideration and orders. A copy of the Order of Precedence at at Durbars is also put up herewith for reference.

3. As regards Sri Madhava Rao, the Civil List shows his salary as Rs.1,000/- plus Acting Allowance Rs.200/- plus Duty Allowance Rs.200/-.

4. ~~Regarding the holding of the meetings of the Representative Assembly in Mysore on the occasion of His Highness's Birthday etc. etc.~~ Officers of Class I only i.e. Heads of Departments and other Officers drawing a pay of Rs.1,400/- and above are ~~being~~ invited to the Birthday Durbars. It is not known which of the other officers drawing total emoluments amounting to Rs.1,400/- are being invited. This may, perhaps, be ascertained before considering the question of including Sri Madhava Rao among the invitees, as the post of Cmr. I.T. is not included in class I of the Order of Precedence.

Rule 2 - Flag X

5. Draft letter put up for consideration.

6. The appointment of President, Representative Assembly, was created very recently. No decision has yet been taken regarding this rank and status. In case this appointment is considered same as that of the President, Legislative Council and the President, constituent Assembly, it may have to be included in the special class in the order of Precedence at Durbars. If this is approved, he would be eligible for invitation for the Birthday. This is for consideration and orders.

Sri N. Madhava Rao, is an Af. Dy. Comr., I class drawing a salary of Rs 1000 + A.A. 200 and as Comr. of Income-tax he is in receipt of an allowance of Rs 200/- pm. His total emoluments come to Rs 1400/pm

"X" According to Rule 2 relating to issue of invitations for the Birthday Festivities, officers of class I who are in Service will be invited for the Birthday Durbar. The appointment of Comr. of Income-tax is not included in class I and consequently he is not entitled to an invitation.

7. As there is no information regarding issue of invitations to officers in receipt of a total emoluments of Rs 1400/pm. The Home Secy may perhaps be requested to forward a list of officers to whom issue of invitations has so far been approved. The draft letter put up is for approval or other orders.
